My dear friend

Your favor of the 3^d, read this morning gave me very great pleasure. The Observer British review, came to me with some more appeals, and I have letter for you from Mr Pratt, but I suppose you have a copy and therefore retain it. I will write to you to-morrow, to remain at the Post office Lead, and inform you particularly of what has taken place here. I will not omit however to mention now that the Standard has become our friend and subscribed £5 and wrote back a note as appts me very much. Dr. Smith has subscribed £3. and desired his best respects to you and to say that he most heartily wished you success. I am going on well but slowly. My applications are confined to the leading men, such as Magistrates, Churchwardens &c at present. The Boroughreeve is my friend will subscribe, but more of this to-morrow —

Lord Kingdon's name is of great service being considered one of the Bartlett's Building Pillars. I would write more but fear this may not reach you. I hope you will go from Leeds to Huddersfield where much good can be done. If you should not get an introduction to ^{Esq.} ~~Mr.~~ ^{Mr.} Haighton, ~~at Leeds~~ ~~of that place.~~ I will write to his uncle who is my particular friend and desire him to introduce you. From thence you will do well to go to Halifax, and return to Platt for a few days, before you go to London.
I want names of subscribers from other places, and can give some when you inform me when to address you that will be of service. I expect support from the Fellows of the Collegiate Church as they have the cause under consideration.

In haste & in yours sincerely
J. Wiggan
